

What you need is a pan-European Initiative taking into account your programmatic requirements in a strategic framework based on national programmes and open principles leading to the necessary market-pull effect. What about this tactical plan ?

...well, you know, I wanted to send this file to FNAL..

F. Fluckiger

We propose to launch a strategic study on infrastructure planning, based on our experience of building simple and rationalized solutions

Well John, they say From the past, it's not clear we want more a secretary than a general

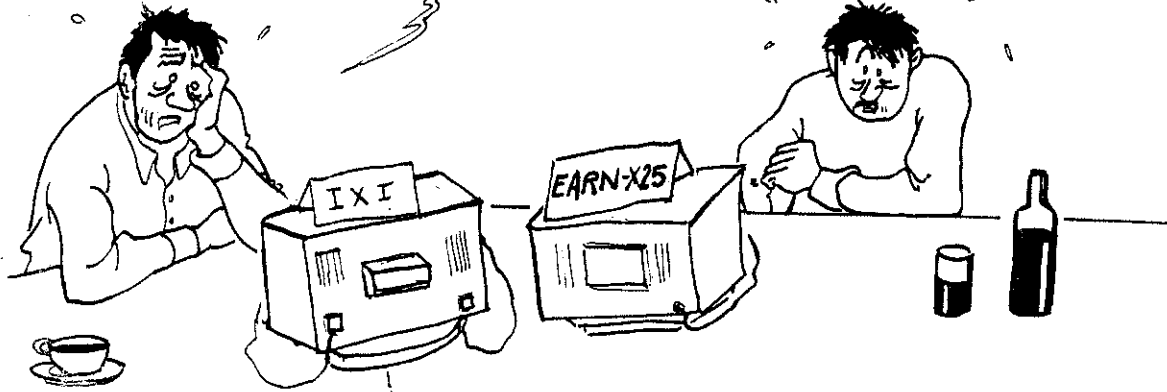

F. Fluckiger

... and you, how many packets on your Net?

Six, last week

Lucky you are

yes... that was my test programme

what's that

our new system to improve transatlantic
traffic ...
and see the queue,
it's getting popular

Jokes ...

Caricature is, by nature, excessive, unjust, unfair and impertinent, ... and may carry sometimes a bit of truth.

F. Fluchiger

I am now happy to officially close this 1st Joint conference between our two organizations.

It certainly opens a new era of collaboration
based on mutual respect,
confidence and tolerance

Caricature is, by nature,
excessive, unfair, unjust and impudent,
and may sometimes carry a bit of truth.
